Cleared Up the Situation.

It happened the night of a big reception at the White House last winter. The local livery stable men were preparing to annex big chunks of musty kale, and they were busy rushing carriages hither and thither. On such occasions the excitement is intense, for these kale-annexing souls try to make one carriage do the work of 20 or thereabouts. The driver of one of these get-rich-quick carriages received an order from his stable foreman to go "and carry the Cuban minister to the White House."

With a crack of the whip and a careful assembling of the reins he prepared to obey the order, when a clerk in the establishment shouted, real gently, at him, and told him to hurry around to the Rochambeau.

The conflicting orders worried the not over brilliant brain of the colored man and hurt his feelings mightily. So he called a fellow employe to the after his team and proceeded to the office, where his employer was literally surrounded by carriage orders and chaos.

"See yere, boss," his voice meandered, "I is suah disturbed 'bout dese yere ordahs. Mr. B. J. say 'Go an' git de Peculiah ministah,' an' de clerk say 'Hurry 'roun' to de Rochambeau ministah.' Now, I wants fer t' know who is de ministah I is to git."

The most valuable work the driver did that night was to give occasion for the good laugh which followed. The surcharged air cleared and every order went out on time.

A Little Girl's Feat.

Little Miss Evelyn Albee of Alna Center may deservedly be called a heroine. A few days ago, while playing near an open well, she accidentally stepped in. The well was 18 feet deep, with six feet of water. Her playmate heard the splash, but was too frightened to call for assistance. Miss Evelyn, who is not six years old yet, was equal to the occasion and clambered to the top, unaided and unharmed. "How did she do it?" is the general question asked, but no one but the lady herself knows, and she wishes to forget it. That she wasn't hurt in some way was truly remarkable.—Kenebec Journal.

Oddity of Dreams.

"Nobody ever feels pain in a dream," said a psychologist. "Rage, terror, joy, grief—these emotions stab us as poignantly in dream as in reality. But physical pain, no. I have interrogated 2,000 persons, and none of them ever dreamed of dreadful motor accidents, tortures, death. One young girl, indeed, dreamed time and again of being eaten alive by cannibals; yet even in that horrible nightmare she felt no pain."
